Tonight, our church family is welcoming the churches in Leavenworth to join together for a night of worship & conversation...United as one! We still need volunteers to help with hospitality. If you can help, contact Ed Garven at egarven@fumclvks.org

Scott & Cathy French will be at both services on Oct. 16 to talk about Global Hope's orphanages in Romania and how to become a God parent to a child displaced from Ukraine. For more info, go to globalhope.org.

Mother's Morning Out is an opportunity to reach out to young families in our community. Registrations are full for this month, but open for the second Wednesday in Nov. We could also use more volunteers. For more information, contact Nancy Shade at nshade@fumclvks.org.

Let's do lunch! You're invited to join us for good food and good company this Tuesday, at noon, at Baan Thai, 301 S. 4th Street in Leavenworth. It's a great time to get to know your church family members.

Hurricane Ian hit Florida as a catastrophic category 4 storm on Sept. 28. Whole communities were devastated. UMCOR supplies have been sent to Florida to address immediate needs. If you would like to help, you can mark your gift UMCOR, or you can visit the website, umcmmission.org.

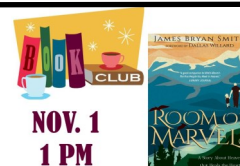

The Charge Conference is the annual church business meeting. You are invited to attend on October 27, at 6 pm. This is your opportunity to learn about and discuss the denominational issues facing the conference.

Grief share is a support group for people living with loss. The open group will meet Wed. at 5 pm in the Education building. Anyone grieving is invited. Contact Marsha for info Marshagaffin@gmail.com.

All Saints Day will be Nov. 6. If you lost someone dear to you in the last year that you would like recognized, please send their name to Sandy by Oct 30. swood@fumclvks.org.

Book Club is reading "Room of Marvels" by James Bryan Smith, a Kansas author. This is a short book that speaks to the eternal in the midst of our most painful earthly losses. For info, contact Sandy, swood@fumclvks.org.

The HUB is a UMC food pantry. In Oct. we are collecting toothbrushes, toothpaste, dental floss & any type of canned beans. You can bring the items to the office or the wooden box in the foyer.
